Audience 		(how do you know it is this audience?)	We should look after our trees. They are very important in our lives because they provide oxygen, protection and shelter.
Title 			Firstly, trees are very important because they produce oxygen. Oxygen gives us clean air to breathe.
Introduction 			Secondly, we should look after our trees because they protect people and animals from the hot sun. Trees have long branches and leaves to provide shade.
Paragraph 1 			Lastly, we should look after our trees because they provide shelter and food for many birds and animals. If trees are cut down there will be no place for birds and animals to live and nothing for them to eat.
Paragraph 2 			All around the world, forests are being cut down. We must look after our trees! We need them for oxygen, protection and shelter! What can you do to help?
Paragraph 3
